

September 2021 CFP Application
University of Tennessee
7-week Global Citizenship Course Initiative

Instructor Name/Title:

Instructor Home Department:

Proposed number of credits (1, 1.5, 2, or 3): _____

Preferred first term of instruction (Fall 2022 or Spring 2023)?: _____

Briefly address the following (no more than 200-300 words per question):

- I. Please provide a draft Undergraduate Catalog course description for your course (including the course title), along with a short overview of the course, such as might appear on your syllabus.

- II. Describe your vision for teaching this course in a fully-online learning environment. Have you ever taught in a fully-online course before? If so, describe your broader pedagogical approach to teaching online. If not, discuss how you might adjust your teaching to a fully-online environment and how TLI and OLAP can assist you.

Instructor Agreement

By signing this application, I agree that should my course be chosen as part of the 7-week Global Citizenship course initiative that I will participate as the active lead instructor for a 7-week course at least once each of the following 3 years.

Instructor Signature

Date

Supervisor Agreement

By signing this application, I agree that the instructor named above can participate in the 7-week Global Citizenship course initiative. Depending on departmental teaching needs, this participation may be part of their in-load teaching responsibilities, may take place through course banking, or may be accomplished as a teaching overload financed by the department.

Department Head/School Director

Date

Dean's Agreement

By signing this application, I understand that the instructor named above will be participating in the 7-week Global Citizenship course initiative. Unless otherwise agreed to, this course will be counted toward the "normal teaching workload" of the faculty for purposes of promotion and/or tenure.

Dean's Signature

Date